The marriage of Miss Mary Amelia Harper to Dr. W. Earle Clark took place last evening in the Metropolitan Presbyterian Church. Robert M. Harper, father of the bride, gave his daughter in marriage and the Rev. Dr. Albert Evans was the officiating clergyman. Miss Harper's bridal gown was of white princess lace built over chiffon and white silk, made after the modified empire style. Her long tulle veil fell to the hem of the train and was fastened to her hair with a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of Bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Elizabeth Harper, sister of the bride, acted as the mald of honor and wore a dainty gown of lavender crepe de Paris, made over white silk and trimmed with Irish lace. She carried a bouquet of white lilacs.

Miss Roberta Harper, another sister of the bride, and Miss Sue Jones were bridesmaids. They wore pretty frocks of white net over white silk with wide lavender girdles and carried purple lilacs.

Fred Clark, brother of the bridegroom,
